

IMAX Reports Q1 Worldwide Gross Box Office of Approximately $121.3 Million

April 2, 2012

IMAX reported today that worldwide gross box office for the first quarter ended March 31, 2012, is estimated to be approximately $121.3 million ($64.3 million domestic and $57.1 million international). International gross box office results include grosses from China. For the first quarter of 2011, gross box office was $62.3 million ($32.2 million domestic and $30.1 million international).

In its opening weekend ended April 1, Warner Bros.' Wrath of the Titans: An IMAX 3D Experience grossed an estimated $8.6 million in worldwide box office ($4.7 million domestic and $3.9 million international), approximately $5.9 million of which was generated during its first two days of release which were captured during the first quarter of 2012.

Final gross box office figures will be released when the Company reports its first quarter financial results at the end of April.